

Academic Report 2011

A Level

The A Level results continue to improve each year and this set of results was no exception. Half of all entries achieved grade A, with a further record number gaining the recently-introduced A* qualification. The 100% pass rate (A*- E) included over 80% of grades within the A* - B range, a 7% rise on the previous year's performance, a real tribute to the hard work of the pupils and their teachers.

Notable successes included Fredrika Collins, James Davey, Katie Donlon and Oliver Layton who secured A* level in all their subjects. Many other pupils also secured at least two A*s in their clean sweep of top grades, including Yannick Fourie, Bertie Gregory, Flora Greville, Sophie Roberts, Claire Scrivener and Fraser Short. As ever, Bradfield pupils demonstrated that a full and busy life is no barrier to academic success. Paul Woodford, for example, celebrated his full set of A grades to go alongside his excellent work as Head of School and 1st XI wicket keeper, whilst Emily Taylor, one of the College's busiest musicians also achieved A's in all her subjects. Special mention should also go to Chris Abbott, Robert Jones, Chantel Maynard, Thilo Paas, Sam Sharp and Greg Smee who each scored top grades in at least four subjects.

GCSE

Although below the record of the previous year, this was nonetheless an encouraging set of GCSE results. Almost half of all entries were awarded either A or A* and among the many personal highlights at the top end were Kate Baddoo, Christopher Bailey, Miles Covers, Sarah Davies, William Hartz, Jessica Kingsbury, Michael Lavoipierre, Sam Lerche-Thomsen, Will Minter-Kemp, Juliette Roberts, Jessica Rowlands, Piers Unsworth-Neil, Thomas Ward and Tom Watson-Brown all of whom swept the board of the highest grades. The results represent a firm foundation for the year group's progress to the Sixth Form.
